Quick Facts:

- Princeton advanced to the NCAA semifinals in 1993 after winning its fourth Ivy League championship. The Tigers received an at-large invitation to the tournament (Princeton shared the championship with Columbia, which received the league's automatic bid) and hosted three matches at Lourie-Love Field. Princeton defeated Columbia, 2-0, in the first round, beat Penn State, 5-2 in the second round and advanced to the semifinals in Davidson, N.C., with a 3-0 victory against Hartwick.
- In 1995, Jesse Marsch '95 became the 11th Tiger to earn first-team All-America status. Previous honorees were Ward Chamberlin '43 (1941, 1942); Bud Palmer '44 (1941); Chandler Brewer '45 (1942); Ralph Close '44 (1942); Butch van Breda Kolff '45 (1946); Robert Rogers '46 (1947); James Crutcher '52 (1951); Steve Davidson '70 (1969); Paul Milone '78 (1977) and Joe Thieman '94 (1992).
- In 1993, Andre Parris '97 was the recipient of Soccer America's Freshman Player of the Year award after setting a University record for assists in a season (12) and compiling an NCAA-record six assists in the post-season tournament. Parris finished his career as Princeton's all-time assist leader with 27.
- Head Coach Bob Bradley '80 resigned in January of 1996 after 12 seasons as head coach to become an assistant coach with D.C. United of the MLS, while also serving as an assistant with the U.S. Olympic Team. Bradley was a standout player for the Tigers during his playing career. He was the team's leading scorer during the 1979 season and was awarded the David S. Hackett Memorial Cup, given annually to the Princeton player demonstrating outstanding enthusiasm, discipline and leadership. In 1993, Bradley was named the National Coach of the Year by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America.
- Head coach Jim Barlow '91, was hired February 21, 1996, exactly 12 years to the day Bradley was hired to lead the Tigers. Barlow was the 1987 Ivy League Rookie of the Year and 1990 Ivy League Player of the Year. He was a three-time first-team All-Ivy League selection and a first-team Academic All-America his senior year. He was one of the finest scholastic players in Mercer County history. Barlow was named the 1987 N.J. Soccer Coaches' Association Player of the Year.
